ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE
The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SIMPSON) (during the vote). Members are advised 2 minutes remain in this vote.

□ 1929

So (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I regret that I missed three votes on October 25, 2005. Had I been present I would have voted "yes" on H.R. 3675 (the American Spirit Fraud Prevention Act), H. Con. Res. 269 (Recognizing the 40th anniversary of the White House Fellows Program) and H.R. 3256 (the Congressman James Grove Fulton Memorial Post Office Designation Act).

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. GUTIERREZ. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably absent from this Chamber today. I would like the Record to show that, had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on rollcall votes 536, 537, and 538.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Ms. CARSON. Mr. Speaker, due to a weather related travel delay, I was unable to record my vote for rollcall suspension votes 536 through 538. Had I been present I would have voted "yes."

HONORING OUR SOLDIERS IN IRAQ

(Mr. MEEHAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. MEEHAN. Mr. Speaker, the Pentagon announced today that 2,000 American servicemen and women have been killed in Iraq. On this same day,

Iraqi officials announced that Iraq's constitution was approved with nearly 80 percent of the vote.

This progress on the political front is in stark contrast with the failure to set clear benchmarks on the security front.

As the casualties continue to mount and rise, the Bush administration continues to refuse to lay out a strategy for a timeline for bringing our troops home.

On this day of mourning, my thoughts and prayers are with the families who have lost their loved ones and with all of our soldiers still serving in Iraq today.

On this day of mixed messages, I renew our call to the administration to outline their plans for bringing our troops home. The best way to honor our soldiers is to find a safe and responsible exit for them from a sovereign and independent Iraq.

HONORING PETTY OFFICER HOSPITALMAN THIRD CLASS CHRISTOPHER THOMPSON

(Ms. FOXX asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. FOXX. Mr. Speaker, I rise with a very heavy heart today to express the condolences of a grateful Nation and to honor the life of Petty Officer Hospitalman Third Class Christopher Thompson, who passed away on October 21 while serving in Iraq.

A native of Wilkes County, North Carolina, Petty Officer Thompson served his country as a naval hospital corpsman. In that role he cared for his wounded comrades and was awarded the Navy Commendation Medal during his first tour of duty for aiding four Marines hurt in a bombing.

Petty Office Thompson was a loving son and brother. He leaves behind his parents, Larry and Geraldine Thompson; and brothers, David Thompson and Jimmy Epley. May God bless them and comfort them during this very difficult time.

We owe this brave sailor and his family a tremendous debt of gratitude for his selfless service and sacrifice. Our Nation could not maintain its freedom and security without heroes like Christopher who make the ultimate sacrifice. Americans, as well as Iraqis, owe their liberty to Christopher and his comrades who came before him.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in honoring Petty Officer Christopher Thompson. May God bless him.

THE SACRIFICE OF OUR FIGHTING MEN AND WOMEN

(Mr. ABERCROMBIE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ABERCROMBIE. Mr. Speaker, the spokesperson for the Pentagon in Baghdad today indicated that anyone who even comments on the fact that
